

Terms & Conditions for making an application for Louise Madigan Bursary

1. Applicants must be current teachers of the in ESCI Region 3.
2. Applicants must be registered at a recognised third level institution during 2019. Bursaries shall not be awarded retrospectively or prior to registration, or if involved in a research project associated with a third level institution.
3. Criteria for selection of particular research projects will be at the discretion of a team of three independent assessors, but they will be asked to bear in mind:
 - Current issues in Education
 - That the selected projects should reflect the various categories of research (e.g. psychology, philosophy, curriculum and assessment, history, policy, administration, leadership etc.)
 - That funding is made available for projects in a number of institutions
 - Geographical and gender balance.
4. Copies of final research are to be made available to the libraries of the three Education Centres .
5. Members may not receive more than one Louise Madigan bursary, over the course of their career.
6. The decision of the independent assessors shall be endorsed by the Management Committees of the 3 Centres. The decision of the 3 Committees is final. No correspondence shall be entered into.
7. Applicants are asked to include in support of their application a description of their project, which should include information on the following aspects of their work:
 - Description of the project for which the Bursary is being sought
 - Relative significance of the contribution that the proposed project will make to the area of study.
 - Methodology
 - Progress to date (where applicable) This description should not exceed 1,000 words. Applicants are asked not to exceed the stated word limits.
8. Only complete applications forms shall be considered.
9. Completed applications must be received (either by post or email) before the closing date (Friday 20 September 2019). Any applications received after the closing date shall not be considered.